

ECONOMIC IMPACT

MPC has generated significant economic value for shareholders, employees, governments, and the communities where we do business. To shareholders, we returned more than $1.75 billion from January 2012 to February 2013 through dividends and share repurchases. Among the S&P 500, MPC was the seventh highest-returning stock in 2012.

In this section you will find metrics that show the amount of money MPC injects into the economy in various ways.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

TARGETED PROCUREMENT SPENDING*

Millions of Dollars

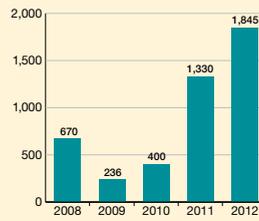

*Includes discretionary and non-discretionary spending with minority- and women-owned business enterprises (MWBEs), as well as veteran-owned and disabled veteran-owned businesses, as certified by the U.S. Small Business Administration. Targeted Procurement Spending is a subset of, and not in addition to, the Total Expenditures (also reported in this section).

Discussion: 2012 is the first year we tracked and included our spending with U.S. Small Business Administration-certified veteran-owned and disabled veteran-owned businesses. Without these categories of spending, our MWBE spending would be $275 million.

INCOME TAX EXPENSES*

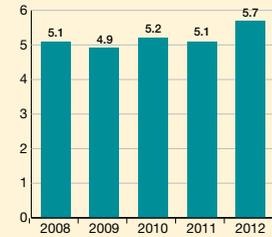

Millions of Dollars

*Includes federal, state, local and foreign.

CONSUMER EXCISE TAXES REMITTED*

Billions of Dollars

*MPC is required by law to collect state and federal excise taxes on fuels we sell to consumers, and remit these taxes to the relevant government entities. In January 2013, state and federal excise taxes averaged about $0.49 per gallon of gasoline, according to the American Petroleum Institute.

COMPANY OWNERSHIP

MPC is owned by thousands of shareholders, which include a broad range of investors. MPC shareholders are individuals as well as large and small institutions such as mutual funds, pension funds, banks, insurance companies, endowment funds and others. Directors and executive officers of MPC, on a combined basis, own less than one percent of MPC stock.
