

Corporate Citizenship

MPC is founded on long-established core values of honesty and integrity, high standards for health, safety and environmental stewardship, valuing the individual and diversity throughout our company, and advocating corporate citizenship. MPC has made an ongoing commitment to these core values. We acknowledge that our actions and operations affect stakeholders – investors, employees, customers, suppliers, communities and business partners – and we strive to promote economic, environmental and social benefits wherever MPC operates. Our commitment to corporate citizenship means being accountable to all of our stakeholders and ensuring that MPC's operations have a positive influence in the communities where we live and work.

Responsible Care®

MPC is proud to participate in Responsible Care, a commitment to the continual improvement of environmental, health, safety and security performance. Responsible Care reflects MPC's commitment to doing the right thing for the right reasons.

Responsible Care companies have reduced recordable injury and illness rates by 78 percent since 1990; process safety incidents by 53 percent since 1995; and hazardous releases to the air, land and water by 75 percent from 1988 to 2013. Through the implementation of Responsible Care and other programs, MPC has reduced the company's OSHA Recordable Incident Rate by more than 75 percent and reduced total criteria air pollutant emissions by more than 50 percent since 2002.

Today more than 250 members and partner companies have committed to the principles and practices of Responsible Care as a way of doing business. MPC is recognized as a pioneer for extending the principles of Responsible Care throughout the refining, marketing and transportation industry. All members and partners have one common vision of no accidents, no injuries and no harm to the environment.
